FEDERAL

IMPACT: Pending

Summary of Legislation: This bill has the following provisions:

- A. It increases the service fee for automobile license registration from twenty-five cents per vehicle to $3, and provides that the increased funds are deposited into the state police building fund.
- B. It gives the superintendent of the state police department, with the approval of the state police board, authority to set fees for accident reports, firearms transactions, and criminal history checks by rule. It provides that the fees must cover the costs of administering the programs.
- C. It provides that the fees may exceed the amount needed to cover costs if the superintendent determines that additional money is needed for programs related to accident reports, firearms programs, and criminal history checks.
- D. It creates the state police department firearm fund and the state police department criminal history check fund, and appropriates money in the funds.
- E. DNA Fee – It requires courts to require local authorities to collect DNA samples in certain situations. It increases the court fee for DNA processing from $1 to $2.
